

Job Application Inclusion Checklist

Applying for jobs can be challenging, especially when you want your application to reflect your authentic identity and values while staying professional and accessible. Use this checklist to review your resume, cover letter, and approach through an inclusive lens:

Job Application Inclusion Checklist

Resume & Cover Letter:

- Use inclusive language free from bias or stereotypes (avoid gendered terms, ableist language, etc.)
- Highlight diverse experiences, volunteer work, or projects that showcase your values and skills
- Include transferable skills that demonstrate adaptability and cross-cultural competency
- Address employment gaps or career transitions with honest, positive framing
- Avoid jargon that may exclude people unfamiliar with industry-specific terms
- Ensure formatting is accessible — use clear fonts, bullet points, and sufficient contrast

Accessibility & Accommodations:

- Confirm your documents are compatible with screen readers and other assistive technologies
- Offer to provide accommodations or alternative formats if requested
- If you need accommodations, prepare a brief, professional note to share if asked

Cultural Competency & Values:

- Reflect your commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion in your personal statement or summary
- Share examples of working in diverse teams or advocating for inclusive practices
- Demonstrate cultural awareness appropriate to the employer or industry

Application Process:

- Research employer's DEI statements, policies, and employee resource groups
 - Prepare thoughtful questions about inclusion and support during interviews
 - Keep track of where you apply and follow up respectfully
-

Inclusive Interview Prep Kit

An interview is your chance to present your full, authentic self confidently. This prep kit guides you through everything you need to show up prepared, poised, and respected:

Documents to Carry:

- Multiple copies of your resume and cover letter
- Portfolio or work samples (if applicable)
- List of references
- Any correspondence related to accommodations

Communication Tips:

- Practice clear, inclusive language that highlights your unique strengths
- Prepare brief, honest stories showing how you've contributed to or benefited from inclusive environments
- Be ready to discuss how you handle challenges related to bias or diversity in the workplace

Handling DEI-Focused Questions:

- Reflect on your understanding of DEI concepts and how they apply to your work
- Share specific examples of collaboration with diverse colleagues or problem-solving with equity in mind
- Express your commitment to continuous learning and allyship

Advocating for Accommodations:

- Know your rights to request reasonable accommodations under applicable laws (e.g., Disabilities Act)
- Be prepared with specific examples of accommodations you may need
- Communicate your needs clearly and professionally

Self-Care & Confidence:

- Plan your route and interview outfit to reduce stress
- Practice mindfulness or breathing exercises before your interview
- Remember that your identity and perspective are valuable assets

Mental Health & Workplace Rights (India)

Taking care of your mental health and knowing your workplace rights is crucial for a sustainable career. Here's a summary of key protections and resources available in India:

Mental Health Rights in India:

- The Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016 includes mental illness under disabilities and protects rights to reasonable accommodation at work.
- Mental Healthcare Act, 2017 guarantees access to mental healthcare and promotes dignity and non-discrimination.
- Employers must not discriminate against individuals on the basis of mental health conditions.

Workplace Protections:

- Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 protects employees from harassment and supports safe environments.
- The Equal Remuneration Act, 1976 and The Constitution of India ensure non-discrimination based on gender or disability in employment and pay.

- Employees can request reasonable accommodations for mental health needs (flexible hours, remote work, breaks, etc.) under disability laws.

Support & Resources:

- Employee Assistance Programs (EAPs): Many organizations offer confidential counseling services.
- NGOs & Helplines:
 - The Live Love Laugh Foundation — focuses on mental health awareness and support in India.
 - AASRA Foundation — provides emotional support helpline for crisis and suicide prevention (Phone: 91-22-2754-6669).
 - Snehi India — offers counseling and awareness on mental health.

How to Protect Your Well-being:

- Recognize signs of workplace stress, burnout, or harassment early
- Know your rights and whom to contact for support within your organization (HR, grievance cells)
- Utilize available mental health days, flexible work options, or counseling resources
- Connect with peer support groups or professional networks that prioritize mental health